REPORTS.

THE AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

We have a common ownership with other Protestant churches in this Society, which has now completed eighty years of its history. During these years it has printed and largely circulated more than sixty-one million copies of the word of God. The books of this Society are invariably sold at cost, and given to those not able to buy. Every county in the North Indiana Conference is organized into an auxiliary Bible Society, and through these and the other societies of the State, fourteen thousand Bibles are annually distributed. This Society goes hand in hand with all the great missionary movements of the age, supplying the Scriptures, in whole or in part, in 242 languages and dialects. It furnishes the Bible in raised letters to the blind, and the emigrant coming to this country the book in his own tongue. Surely we ought to be in helpful sympathy with this Society.

We earnestly endorse the apportionment plan among the charges of our Conference in aid of this important work. We desire to express our high appreciation of the faithful services of our District Superintendent, Rev. W. J. Vigus, D. D., and we will welcome him to our charges and pulpits whenever he can be among us.

R. Toby, Pres.
T. H. C. Beall, Sec'y.

BOOK CONCERN COMMITTEE.

We, your Committee on Book Concern, present the following report:

1. We consider it good cause for congratulation to learn from the report of the Book Committee that our Book Concerns, east and west, are closing a quadrenium of great success, with a net capital of $3,492,863.35, with an annual sale of $2,139,022.17, yielding profits amounting to $274,840.30, and distributing dividends of $147,018 to the annual Conferences, and this, in spite of the financial stringency of the times.

2. We greet the Western Christian Advocate as a strong ally in the work of righteousness and battle with sin, and rejoice in the prospect of an increased and increasing usefulness for it.

We will gladly welcome several more columns of religious reading matter, and recommend that more attention be given to this part of the excellect paper.

3. It gives us great pleasure to be assured by the editor, Dr. D. H. Moore, of a still further reduction in the price of the Western Christian Advocate, and express our wish that it may be placed at one dollar a year.

4. We will urge our people to a steady loyalty to the Methodist Book Concern, to purchase there all their books and supplies for Sunday Schools, Epworth Leagues, etc., and try to teach them that every dollar spent in this way adds to the efficiency of the church, and enables the strong to benefit the weak, by increasing the dividends from this fund for Conference Claimants.

TREASURER OF CONFERENCE CORPORATION.

Received from Mrs. Arthur Bland, of Kosciusko county, Ind $20 00

EDUCATION.

To the members of the North Indiana Conference:

Your Committee on Education presents the following report:

DE PAUW UNIVERSITY.

We are pleased that upon a careful examination of the Year Book, and by a thoughtful reading of the Visitors' Report and the communication addressed to us by the Rev. H. A. Gobin, D. D., Acting President of the University, we note that there has been such a faithful and conservative management of this noble Institution of Methodism, as enables us to speak well of its present work, and most sanguinely predict for it a future of unparalleled success. Because of the great concern of the friends and patrons of DePauw, we believe that the best period of our beloved Institution is not in the past, neither do we now enjoy it, but it is yet to dawn upon us. But, however, to insure this high ideal of usefulness and prosperity, and to maintain it where it should be, properly related to the higher education, and to make it a University representing the highest and best educational work in the closing years of the nineteenth century, we must understand well its needs and interests, and feeling their weight upon our hearts, earnestly and persevereingly present them to our people.

We are thankful too that there is a deep religious sentiment which pervades the student life, and that much religious work is accomplished in the associations of the University, which shows that while the intellect is quickened and brightened, the conscience and heart are properly taught and cultivated.

But we cannot give ourselves over to rejoicing entirely, nor use all our space in congratulations; but we must also express some regrets:

1st. So many of our people within the patronizing territory do not seem to realize the urgent needs of this Institution, and they fail to respond to its aid by giving of their means for its endowment and by making vigorous efforts to fill the University halls with students. In both of these ways we should labor with unceasing zeal if we would accomplish the best results.

2nd. The income of the University is not sufficient to meet the actual demands upon its resourses, so that it is only by the most careful management, and, in some instances, by retrenchment, that year by year the Institution can pay its way. Here is perhaps our greatest anxiety; but even here we trust the way will brighten before us.

With these facts for our consideration we recommend:

1st. That two thousand dollars be apportioned to this Conference for the annual expenses of the University, and that we earnestly strive to raise this entire amount: and that further we urge our people to contribute liberally to the Endowment Fund.

2nd. That we express it as the sense of this Conference that the most rigid economy be practiced in the financial affairs of the Institution, aud that we unhesitatingly recommend retrenchment rather than any over-reaching the income. And the only safe way we can travel is by holding sacred and intact the Endowment Fund, and thus preserve inviolate our faith with those whose generosity prompted them to place their means in our trust.

3rd. That the visitors make as frequent visits to the University as they can, and give as much time and attention to its interest as may be in their power.

4th. That the attention of our preachers be called to the fact that the apportionment to our Conference for education is for DePauw University and should therefore be faithfully collected and properly applied. The sum collected for Childrens' Day Fund is separate and will not answer for the regular educational collection.

It is with almost inexpressable sadness that we speak of the loss to the Board of Trustees which has come to us in the death of Hon. T. B. Redding, Ph. D., who passed to his reward April 11, 1895. We commend Rev. W. D. Parr, D. D., Hon. J. F. Elliott, and Rev. C. G. Hudson, D. D., as most efficient and faithful Trustees who will do all they can for our University whose welfare and honor are in a measure placed in their keeping.

In speaking of DePauw University, we say we are proud of the past, we are thankful for the present, and we are hopeful for the future.

We recommend as visitors to DePauw University—for two years—S. Light and M. S. Marble

We also nominate as Trustees: C. G. Hudson, to succeed himself; the Hon. Hugh Dougherty, to fill out the unexpired term of the Hon. C. L. Henry; Rev. M. H. Mendenhall, D. D., to fill out the unexpired term of the Hon. T. B.

Redding, Ph. D., deceased; and the Hon. J. T. Elliott, of Logansport, as an additional Trustee under the new apportionment among the three Conferences.

THE AMERICAN UNIVERSITY.

As a Conference we desire to express our just pride in the inception and faith in the future of the American University. The comprehensiveness of the undertaking is well calculated to place the Church in a most commanding attitude to the thinking people of the nation. We recommend that our pastors exercise care to thoroughly inform our people upon this great undertaking, which has for its definite end the more speedy coming of the Kingdom of Christ. We commend this institution as very justly worthy of their support in every possible way.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

We are pleased to learn that the Board of Education is doing a great work in accordance with authority given it by the last General Conference, in applying the standard of requirements for graduation in Methodist colleges, formulated by the University Senate. This is helping to bring our colleges to the front, and it is hoped will secure the patronage of all the members and adherents of Methodism.

We are gratified also to learn that the Board has aided 1,540 students the last year. Of this number, 18 belong within the bounds of our Conference and received $1,008, a little less than the Board received from our Conference collections.

We recommend that Childrens' Day be observed in every charge according to the Discipline, and the official program be used, and an increased collection be secured.

OUR THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS.

1. Drew Theological Seminary.

The splendid record of Drew Theological Seminary in sending out a graduating class in 1895 of nearly fifty men to the various Conferences and Missions is worthy of special mention. The increased facilities of buildings for study, and the enlarged intellectual and spiritual life among the students indicate the consecration and efficiency of the Faculty. We mourn the loss of the late Rev. John Miley, D. D., Professor of Systematic Theology, but are gratified to learn of the able work done in that department by Rev. S. L. Bowman, D. D.

2. Garrett Biblical Institute.

Garrett Biblical Institute still maintains its high standard of efficiency. Rev. Dr. Little as successor of the late Rev. H. B. Ridgeway, D. D., is proving to be an exceptionally good President. We take pleasure in recommending these schools to our preachers and those about to enter the ministry.

3. DePauw School of Theology.

We are pleased to note that this young and growing school is presided over by an able Dean and its work carried forward by an efficient corps of instructors. The work done is very thorough and the standard of attainment very high. We heartily recommend this school to our young men needing special training of this kind.

4. It is with great pleasure that we note the success and prosperity which have attended the Boston School of Theology during this year, and that its location, the high grade of work it has done, together with its very able faculty commend it to the whole Church, especially to all Divinity students.

We recommend the following visitors to these schools:

To Garrett Biblical Institute, H. J. Norris and J. K. Walts; Drew Theological Seminary, E. E. Neal; DePauw School of Theology, F. M. Stone, J. A. Beatty and L. M. Krider.

Respectfully submitted,

F. G. Browne, Chairman.

S. Light, Secretary.

DE PAUW.

Your Commissioners appointed in the matter of distribution of Trustees for De Pauw University, report concurrence in the recommendations of the Northwest Indiana Conference Commissioners, viz: To Indiana Conference, 9 Trustees; Northwest Indiana Conference, 6 Trustees; North Indiana, 6 Trustees.

William D. Parr, Sec'y.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

The Epworth League is the greatest department of the church for educating in the church work. It is the very heart of the church, which, if removed, would hurt it, if unnoticed, would cripple it. Its growth has been marvelous. In the last year the Seniors have increased to 15,505; the Juniors to 8,854, making a total of 24,389.

Therefore, we recommend this great department of the church to the careful pastor as the best place for all the young people, especially the young converts. There they can be held, nurtured and developed.

We recommend systematic benevolence among our young people, Juniors and Seniors, as a penny a week for missions. The appointment of an earnest Epworthian in each chapter as collector of this.

We recommend the Epworth Herald as the brightest and best Christian paper for the young.

We recommend a Junior Chapter for every Senior throughout the Conference, in order that the lambs may be fed by the loving Shepherd.

We recommend that in our anniversaries we have each district represented by a vice president, thus making our annual gathering a more representative meeting.

We recommend that the presiding elders of each district appoint one to act as such district vice president.

We recommend as officers for the North Indiana Conference organization: President, W. D. Parr, Vice President, E. T. Gregg, Secretary, H. M. Johnson, Treasurer, J. D. Croan.

FREEDMAN'S AID AND SOUTHERN EDUCATION SOCIETY.

Your Committee respectfully submits the following statement and resolutions:

The Freedman's Aid and Southern Education Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, by the history it has made in the last twenty-five years, commends itself to all Methodism.

The Society now owns forty-five institutions of learning. Twenty-three of them are devoted to the Christian Education of the American Negro, of whom 4,845 were in attendance in the year 1894 and 1895. Twenty two of these schools are for the poor white people of the South, of whom 3,278 were in attendance the same year.

These institutions are sending out converted young men and women, educated in the great and fundamental principles of morality, patriotism and loyalty, whereby they are enabled to wield a lasting influence for good in civil and religious life.

Two million dollars of real estate is owned by this Society. Its indebtedness has been funded in five per cent. bonds; and the cash receipts from tuition, room rent, and incidentals amount to twice as much as all the Conference collections for this cause.

Yet since the Freedman's Aid and Southern Education Society has the sole charge of the religious education of 547,000 communicants, living in a territory covered by thirty-five Conferences, the supplementary aid afforded by collections has very meagerly supplied the treasury.

Our people know very little of the marvelous results that have been obtained, and of the opportunities yet open to this work in the South.

WHEREFORE, be it Resolved:

1st. That we look with disfavor on any tendency to relax our efforts in behalf of our schools in the South, and our financial support of the same. While we are raising endowments and placing our schools in the North on permanent foundations, we regard it no less our duty to lay permanent foundations in the South, where the need is so much greater.

We will use all diligence in the promotion of these ends, and will keep before our churches and people the fact that our Southern Educational Work must continue to be supported by the church until the endowments of all our schools in that section can be made complete.

2d. That we urge our layity to subscribe for the Christian Educator and read it. That we also note the fact that the Freedman's Aid and Southern Education Society will furnish free of charge excellent material for entertainments or concerts.

3d. That the apportionment to this Conference for said Society for the following year be $2,982.

4th. That we endeavor to give the Freedman's Aid and Southern Education Society a more equitable proportion of the money collected for church benevolences

5th. That we recommend one entire service for the presentation of the claims of this society.

POPULAR AMUSEMENTS.

Amusements are not necessarily sinful because they are popular, but many popular amusements are wrong because they are questionable.

It is a source of deep regret that there is among some of our people, the middle aged as well as the young, a tendency to engage in questionable amusements in violation of the spirit of Christianity, and the discipline of the church as well, such as the dance, card playing, attending horse races and theaters and such like, all of which have an evil tendency and tend to counteract the work of saving souls. We believe it to be the duty of every pastor to seek by any and all proper methods to dissuade our people from engaging in any diversion which is contrary to the spirit which actuated the Master.

We will continue to denounce all wrongs, and cry out against these evil practices, both from the pulpit and the press, and insist that a faithful adherance to the requirements of the discipline be enforced.

We declare our sympathy with all organizations that seek to elevate mankind, socially, intellectually and spiritually, yet we regard the Church of Christ above all other organizations, as a teacher of morals and social purity.

We hereby declare our satisfaction with the law of the church as given in the discipline' ¶240, and protest against the removal of what some are pleased to call the "black list."

The Secretary is instructed to forward the action of this Conference relating to this proposed change, to the proper authorities of the ensuing General Conference.

W. M. Nelson,
U. S. A. Bridge.

SABBATH DESECRATION.

Your Committee on Sabbath Desecration respectfully submit the following report:

Whereas, Sabbath desecration is growing to an alarming extent in our beloved land, in labor, travel, traffic and news-vending, frivolity, intemperance, profligacy and riot, which must continuously and rapidly encroach upon the authority and hallowed repose of the Christian Sabbath. Therefore, to meet this growing evil with adequate counteraction,

Resolved, That we will wage an unceasing warfare against the same, using all laudable and reasonable means within our power in counteracting this unholy and un-American influence, and that we recognize the work of the Sunday League of America, represented at this session of our Conference by Dr. Edward Thomson.

We have examined some of the leaflets published by this Society, and coincide in the opinion of them expressed by Bishop J. P. Newman, who said, "They are what are needed to educate and interest all the people."

We endorse the plan of the Sunday League of America to reach every large town once in five years with its practical evangelistic work in the interests of our American Sabbath, and are gratified to learn that for the coming year, Dr. Thomson, the general manager of this Society, will have his headquarters in Chicago, and will give a part of his personal attention to Sunday reform work within the bounds of our Conference, and that we will gladly welcome Dr. Thomson to our charges and pulpits whenever he may find it convenient to be with us, that we will aid and assist him in securing subscriptions for the literature of the Sunday League of America, and in the distribution of the same. And we sincerely hope and devoutly pray that his services may be greatly blessed to the good of all our people.

Signed,

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

Your committee report as follows:

1. We would respectfully call the attention of the Conference to the growth and importance of Sunday School work in our church. This great educational department of the church has grown until it embraces 30,259 schools, with 352,627 officers and teachers, and 2,585,178 scholars.

One blessed result of Sunday School work for 1895 was the conversion of 132,697 souls for which we give our Heavenly Father profound thanks.

2. Inasmuch as the education of the young is of vast importance, we suggest that great care be taken in the selection of teachers, and that the pastor and Superintendent unite in choosing for teachers only the best men and women, seeking always for those who are earnest in their christian experience, intelligent in mind, apt to teach, and who are Godly in their lives.

3. To this end we would suggest that the plan of normal classes for the better training of teachers, as presented by the Sunday School Department of the church, be approved, that classes be organized where practicable, and registered at the office of the Sunday School Union.

4. We call attention to the fact that some of our Sunday Schools use literature other than our own publications and urge the pastors to insist on the Sunday Schools of the Methodist Episcopal church using lesson helps, periodicals, library books, etc., published by the Methodist Book Concern.

5. We recommend that pastors urge parents to require their children to study the lesson at home during the week, and that scholar and teacher use the Bible and not merely the lesson help in the Sunday School class.

6. We respectfully call attention to the work of the Sunday School Union, it having aided during the past year more than 3,000 schools of our church.

This society asks from the entire church fifty thousand dollars, of which sum $765 has been apportioned to our Conference. We recommend this be approved by the Conference, apportioned to the Presiding Elder districts, then to the charges, and raised during the year.

Last year 160 charges reported $374. 17 charges made no report. Shall we not do better next year?

WHEREAS, The Indiana State Sunday School Association is doing a great work among the Sunday Schools of all the evangelical denominations within the State: and,

WHEREAS, Inter-denominational christian work is always to be commended as indicating a closer and more fraternal union of all the christian forces of the State,

Resolved, That this Conference renews its declaration of accord and harmony with the Indiana State Sunday School Association.

Resolved, That we recommend the ministry and laity of our church in this State to extend hearty co-operation to the said Association in its work; that we approve its method of county and township organization, and especially do we recommend its plan of house to house visitation, and of the organization of the Home Class Department in connection with the Sunday Schools.

Respectfully submitted, Sylvester Billheimer,
C. Harvey,
D. H. Guild,
R. H. Smith,
Committee.

SUSTENTATION COMMITTEE.

Your committee on Conference Sustentation beg leave to report as follows:

1. We recommend that the Presiding Elder and the members of the committee from his district distribute their portion of the funds to the most needy cases within the said district.

2. We recommend that the sum of $2,000 be apportioned to the districts and charges to be raised in the same way as other benevolences.

J. E. Ervin,
E. M. Baker,
William Lash,
E. E. Neal,
E. F. Hasty,
Committee.

Resolved, That we renew the action of the Conference one year ago concerning the need of a Sustentation Fund; that we apportion two thousand dollars to the districts on the same basis as the other benevolences, and that the amount raised in each district be distributed within the same district.

RESOLUTIONS ON TEMPERANCE.

We recognize the fact that the drink traffic is more strongly intrenched behind money, law and politics than ever before. Investments are greater, the bulwarks of license laws are stronger, and political parties are more thoroughly in bondage to liquor makers and dealers than at any time since the movement for prohibition was inaugurated.

At the same time the sentiment in favor of prohibition was never so widely and generally diffused, and so pronounced as now. The great ecclesiastical bodies of the land are so thoroughly committed to the policy and principle of prohibition, that they can not and will not retract. Epworth Leagues and Christian Endeavor Societies have taken their stand for total abstinence and prohibition, and are educating a vast army for the final battle that must soon be fought for the home, the school, the church and the nation. The lines are being drawn more sharply than ever before, and the time is at hand when Christian men can no longer be members of churches that stand for prohibition and vote with political parties that are pledged to license.

We will do all in our power to hasten the final allignment that will put all Christian and moral forces on one side and all the forces of the rum power on the other; knowing that when the final battle is joined, victory for the right will be speedy and overwhelming.

Meanwhile we will stand upon the action of the General Conference of our church, wherein it declares that "In our judgment the saloon is an unmixed evil, full of diabolism, a disgrace to our civilization, the chief corrupter of political action, and a continual menace to the order of society, and the peace and purity of our homes.

"Believing, as we do, that the traffic in intoxicating beverages sustains the relation of an efficient cause to the vice of intemperance, we hold that no member of the Methodist Episcopal Church can consistently contribute by voice, vote or influence to the perpetuation and protection of that traffic.

"We declare before all the world that the Church of God ought to be known always and everywhere, as the relentless and uncompromising foe of this ungodly business, and that it is the duty of every Christian to wage ceaseless warfare against it.

"We insist that the United States Government and the various State governments, in tolerating the liquor traffic for a money consideration, are guilty of wicked complicity with a business whose awful work of destruction brands it as alike an enemy to God and man.

"We do not presume to dictate the political conduct of our people, but we do record our deliberate judgment that no political party has a right to expect, nor ought to receive the support of Christian men so long as it stands committed to the license policy or refuses to put itself on record in an attitude of open hostility to the saloon."

WHEREAS, The increasing and alarming cigarette habit is destroying so many young men and dissipating hopeful young manhood, we believe it to be our indispensable duty to voice against its pernicious use whenever and wherever opportunity affords.

R. S. Reed,
J. O. Bills,
S. C. Norris.

Resolved, That we reaffirm our approval of the Nicholson Bill, and will aid in its enforcement for the overthrow of the saloon.

We rejoice that five hundred or more of their doors have been closed the last year, and pray that this number may be multiplied many fold more in the year to come.

TRACTS.

The Tract has an important and useful place among our evangelizing agencies. The assortment of Tracts is large and their cost is small; besides each pastor may secure free of cost Tracts to the amount of one-half the sum raised for the society.

The Tract society is also a helper in the General Missionary work.

Our apportionment for the coming year is $765. Last year we raised less than half the amount asked for. Let us this year more nearly meet the apportionment. Signed,

A. G. McCarter,
F. M. Lacy,
J. W. Lowry,
W. J. Waltz,
H. M. Johnson,
Committee.

WOMAN'S HOME AND FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETIES.

Whereas, The Woman's Home Missionary Society and the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society have by their united consecrated efforts in both the home and foreign fields contributed money, clothing and food, extending the helping hand to the needy, alleviating human suffering and using every effort for the propagation of the gospel at home and abroad; and

Whereas, Their devotion and consecration along all lines of Missionary and Philanthropic work have greatly quickened the entire church and enlarged and intensified the spirit of beneficence, therefore, be it Resolved, 1. That we will heartily co-operate with the Woman's Home Missionary Society and the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society.

2. That we recommend a special service to be held on each charge setting forth the opportunities and responsibilities of the church in this noble work.

3. That we heartily approve of the work done by the Deaconesses among the sick and destitute, especially in the larger cities and towns.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

Resolved, That as a Conference our grateful thanks be extended:

Second. That we highly esteem the visit and kindly words of Bishop Joyce.

Third. To the pastor of First M. E. Church, Rev. W. H. Daniel, and also the pastors of the other Methodist Episcopal churches of the city for their untiring efforts in providing such excellent entertainment. Their uniform cordiality and unbounded kindness will ever be remembered.

Fourth. To Miss Gertrude Mote, the organist, the church choir and others for the inspiring music rendered.

Fifth. To the Central Traffic Association for favors shown in reduced rates, and the courtesy shown by the special Agent, Mr. G. M. Farnham.

Sixth. To the churches of the city and their pastors for Christian greetings extended in the use of their churches and pulpits,

W. E. McCARTY.

Whereas, Rev. W. E. McCarty, a superannuated member of the North Indiana Conference, has in course of preparation the Portrait and Biographical Record of the Church in Indiana, and

WHEREAS, A correct and complete record of the church in the State of Indiana should be made—the facts, incidents and data from the origin of Methodism until the present time collected and preserved in some permanent form —we heartily endorse the endeavor of our brother and commend his history and biography to the favorable consideration of our people.

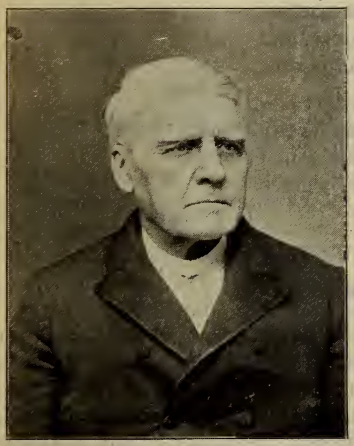
He died triumphantly—having wrought faithfully to the end. His funeral was held May 1st, in First Church, Greenfield, and was conducted by his pastor, Rev. M. E. Nethercut, assisted by Dr. A. E. Mahin, of Richmond District; Rev. L. J. Naftzger, of Grace Church, Richmond; and Rev. J. L. Barklay, of the Methodist Protestant church, Greenfield.

He was laid to rest in the beautiful Park cemetery. The burial was under the direction of I. O. O F., of which our brother was an honored member.

"Well done, good and faithful servant."

REV. LEWIS ROBERTS.



Lewis Roberts was born April 7, 1811, in Mercer county, Pa., and died at his home in Peru, Ind., May 20, 1895, in his eighty-fifth year. The same year of his birth his father removed with the family to the State of Kentucky, and in 1816 removed from there to Indiana. Brother Roberts was a nephew of Bishop R. R. Roberts. His youth was spent with his father on a farm in Lawrence county, Ind. His educational advantages were such as the country schools afforded in those days. He was soundly converted at the age of fourteen years, under the preaching of Rev. Richard Hargrave. He was licensed to preach in 1838, and the following year he removed to Iroquois county, Illinois. Here he was soon recognized as a good preacher, a devoted Christian, and a man full of zeal for God. In the fall of 1843 the presiding elder employed him as a supply on the Iroquois Circuit. Seven years later he began his work as an itinerant preacher in Indiana, on Greencastle Circuit. His appointments were, following this one, Rockville, Springtown, Otter Creek, Alamo, Newport, Paw Paw, Xenia, Williamsburg, Farmland, Hagerstown, Ossian, New Haven, Leo, Huntertown, Santa Fe and Alto. He was granted a superannuated relation with the Conference in 1879. During the years of his superannuation he was true and loyal to the church. A dignified, honored, christian warrior.

He was united in marriage in 1866 to Miss Jane Messick, at Dublin, Indiana. This proved a happy union, each seeking, at all times, to honor the other. The widow, and four children by his first marriage, survive him. Brother Roberts was kind, patient, faithful, and of a happy disposition. With his death we are reminded how few the number of those early pioneer preachers remain among us, to whom we owe so much as a church. The closing hours of father Roberts' life were times of holy triumph. He died, as he lived, a child of God. As the aged veteran neared his heavenly home he said, "I see the innumerable company that John saw. I see the blood washed throng. Heaven is open. I must go quickly. I am going." And without a struggle, conscious of the change, in the triumph of the Christian's faith, the veteran went home to God. Like a tired traveler he was taken in and given rest. His funeral was conducted by his pastor, the Rev. E. E. Neal, in the Methodist Episcopal Church, at Peru, Ind., on Thursday, May 23, 1895, assisted by Rev. M. S. Marble, presiding Elder and other brethren. How glad we are that such good men have lived. Their works do follow them. We gather some of the harvests of their planting. In this hour we join in the sentiment of heaven and earth and say:

"Rest from thy labor, rest,
Soul of the just, set free;
Blest be thy memory, and blest
Thy bright example be.

Now, toil and conflict o'er,
Go take with saints thy place;
But go, as each has gone before,
A sinner saved by grace."

L. A. Beeks.

MRS. PATIENCE WELCH.

Mrs. Patience Welch, the wife of our beloved brother, J. W. Welch, was born November 14, 1824, and died October 14, 1895. She embraced religion fifty-two years ago at the age of nineteen years and at once united with the church. In 1844 she was married to Rev. J. W. Welch, of this Conference. In 1851 she with her husband entered the traveling connection of the Methodist ministry. Their appointments were Hamilton, Allen, Auburn and New Paris. Then for a period of years they were superannuated, after which, they served LaGrange charge, when again they entered the superannuated relation. They once more joined the effective ranks and were assigned the places of Auburn, Pierceton, Warsaw District; Anderson, Greenfield, Winchester, Knightstown and Portland. Our sister becoming so afflicted that moving, and housekeeping, was impossible for her, she was led to make her home with her daughter at Ligonier. Her husband still continuing to serve the church and God at Fort Wayne and Hudson. Sister Welch was of a timid and retiring disposition. The cares and burdens of a public life, like that of a minister's wife, because of this temperament, bore heavily upon her Though much of the life of a preacher's wife was not in accord with her tastes, yet she was loyal and true. She loved the church. Christ was her chief joy. While she would have far more enjoyed a settled home among old associations, yet she cheerfully went forth at the call of God and the church. Her life was full of good deeds, wherever opportunity afforded. Her memory is precious. She believed the gospel. Her hope of eternal life was alone in the merit of Christ. Her faith was unwavering and clear. Her devotion simple and confiding. She lived a Christ life. She won a host of friends in the charges they served and the results of her quiet christian life will last:

"While life and thought, and being last,
Or immortality endures."

In the full confidence of christian faith she peacefully passed into her heavenly reward where suffering and pain are no more, of which she knew so much here. She leaves behind, her husband with two daughters and one son to mourn her loss. Her funeral was conducted by her pastor, Rev. J. A. Beatty, and the presiding elder, Rev. C. G. Hudson, D. D., at Ligonier, and her body laid away in the cemetery at the same place. L. A. Beeks.

MRS. JULIA B. WILCOX.

Julia Bell Mills, wife of Rev. Charles B. Wilcox, was born in Virgil City, Mo., August 28, 1871, and died of consumption in the Methodist Episcopal parsonage at Albion, Ind., August 13, 1895, aged 23 years, 11 months and 13 days. When she was six months old her parents returned from Missouri to Michigan A few more months and the mother died of that same dreadful disease. In 1884 the family home was removed to Northern Michigan. Sister Wilcox was brought up in the church, being baptized in Petoskey, Mich., and in due time received into full membership. Her life of usefulness and piety shows the strength of the nurture and admonition of the Lord working through the church. She entered Albion College, Mich., in 1887, spending one year there. From thence she went to Lawrence University, Appleton, Wis., where she remained two years. In the University, besides her excellent scholarship and christian deportment, she was noted for her interest in Mission work. Upon June 18, 1891, in Ormsby Hall, Lawrence University, she was married to Rev. Chas. B. Wilcox, which union was one of rare and unalloyed happiness, blessed by one son and one daughter. Just four days after the death of Sister Wilcox the little daughter, Eva Laura, who was fourteen months old, followed the mother into the glory world. Sister Wilcox bravely and cheerfully went to her first parsonage home at Osceola, Ind., where for two years all that consecrated mind and loving hands could do to aid the work was done by her. Their field of work was then changed to Albion, Ind. Here her faithful and excellent efforts—particularly in the Junior League—won all hearts. One summer, aided by the League, she sent every week flowers and appropriate texts of Scriptures to all the aged and sick of the community. She was possessed of great natural powers—a fine conversationalist, one of exquisite artistic taste and excellent literary ability, humble, free from vanity, true, sincere, a loving, faithful wife, a wise counsellor, a tender, careful mother. La grippe awakened within her the germs of consumption and the inevitable end drew near. Being so young the desire to live was very strong, but finally she fully learned the prayer, "Thy will be done." Then her heart went out in that swan-like song of P. P. Bliss, the last he ever wrote:

I know not what awaits me;
God kindly veils mine eyes,
But o'er each step of my onward way
He makes new stars arise.

I know not what awaits me,
I would not if I might;
I would rather walk in the dark with God,
Than walk alone in the light.

Silently the messenger came. Her heroism—a triumph of faith—will be a perennial blessing. Her funeral was preached by her presiding elder, C. G. Hudson. The interment was at Kendalville.

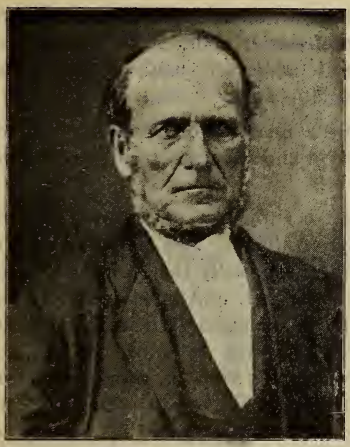
EMILY MAFFIT.

Emily Foust Maffit was born January 8, 1815, in Delaware county, Ohio, and died January 31, 1896, aged 81 years and 23 days. She was converted, and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church in early life, and continued faithful to death. Her father was prominent in Methodism, holding numerous official positions during life. Her brother, F. H. Foust, of Columbia City, Indiana, is a banker of that city, is intimately connected with Methodism at that place. In 1834 she was united in marriage to John Maffit, her now bereaved husband, who survives her, and is in a very feeble condition. Brother and Sister Maffit were spared to each other for 62 years of married life. Our sister was the mother of eight children, three of whom are still living. For many years she had been deprived of all church privileges, but, notwithstanding all of this, she has been a devoted Christian. In all the years of her toil and suffering, of which she had a full share, her faith in her Savior never wavered. She possessed great christian fortitude. She lived a long and good life, and was fully prepared for her Lord's coming, when he called for her. Her spirit has winged its flight from earth to heaven, where, we believe, it is now bathing itself in seas of everlasting bliss. Five of her dear family had previously entered the beyond. Dear sister, we bid you farewell, with the glorious hope of meeting you in the morning of that blessed day, whose sun shall never set.

"O, in our sterner manhood, when no ray
Of earlier sunshine glimmers on our way;
When girt with sin and sorrow, and the toil
Of cares which tear the bosom that they soil;
O, if there be in retrospection's chain one thought
Which seems each instant, in its backward range,
The heart to soften, and its ties to change,
And every string untouched for years to move,
It is—the memory of a mother's love."

T. F. Frech.

REV. JOHN HARRISON.



The Rev. John Harrison was born on the 4th day of April, 1807, at Thirsk, Yorkshire, England, and died at Richmond, Ind , on the 6th day of January, 1896, aged 88 years, 9 months and 2 days. He was married to Grace Lonsdale, at Thirsk, England, on the 20th day of February, 1830. He and his family were men and women of vigorous intellect and of strong moral, religious and political convictions. They were followers of Wesley, and in favor of a Republican government. They all left the old country for America so that they might enjoy greater religious and political freedom. John and Grace Harrison emigrated from England to the United States in the year 1830. They left Thirsk April 15th, sailed from Liverpool May 8th, and landed in Philadelphia June 21th and arrived in Cincinnati the 12th of July, 1830. They removed from Cincinnati to Waynesville, O., January 12th, 1832. On the 23d day of November, 1843, Grace Harrison died at NewBurlington,O.,where he then resided. He again married on the 23d of November, 1846, to Amanda Woodward Mendenhall, who survives him. He was the father of ten children, six of whom are living.

He belonged to a religious family. His father and several of his brothers were ministers of the Methodist church. He was converted, and united with the church in 1817. He was licensed to preach in 1826, when only ninteen years of age, by the Methodist church of England. After coming to America he united with the Methodist Episcopal church and was ordained a local deacon in 1837, by Bishop James O. Andrew. He was an active opponent of war, slavery and intemperance. Because of his dissatisfaction with the action of the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church on the subject of slavery, he joined the Wesleyan Methodist church in 1844, and was ordained an elder in 1844 by the president of the Wesleyan Conference. He preached on various circuits of the Miami Conference of that church in Ohio and Indiana for a period of over twenty years. In 1861 he established his residence at Richmond, Ind. He was admitted to the North Indiana Conference, held at Anderson, in the year 1867. He labored in the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal church for a continuous perid of seventeen years, on circuits in Henry, Madison, Howard and Wayne counties. In 1884, at the age of 77, worn out with arduous labors, the weight of years and the infirmities of old age, he accepted a superannuated relation to the church, and returned to his residence in Richmond, where has resided ever since, and has been a member of the First Methodist church.

Of a large family of brothers and sisters only two survive. Thomas Harrison, for many years teacher in schools and professor in colleges, and minister of the gospel of the Methodist Episcopal church, able, scholarly, cultured and accomplished resides in his old age, at Shelbyville, Ind.

The Hon. Richard Harrison, at one time a member of Congress, and for many years a talented and distinguished lawyer and advocate, resides at Columbus, Ohio.

The life of John Harrison has not been occupied in getting and holding property. His thoughts have been otherwise occupied. The great interests of the human family have absorbed his attention; especially the eternal salvation and welfare of his fellow being. With the strongest, and most postive religious, moral and political convictions which he espoused with zeal, and maintained with ability on all proper occasions, he was tolerant, affable, and approachable. He had the kindliest disposition. Men of widely different views, and in all the walks of life were on the friendliest terms. He associated intimately with all classes of people, but he never compromised his dignity, or sacrificed his principles, or wavered from the strictest integrity. This humble and devoted servant of God, departed this life as he had lived, a devoted follower of Christ, full of faith, devoutly believing in the resurrection and eternal life, full of hope, and confidently relying on the promises of the New Testament.

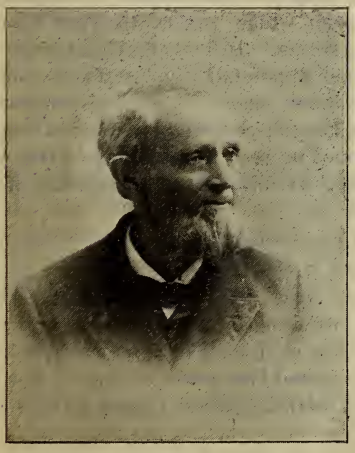
Rev. Milton Mahin, D. D., who was intimately acquainted with him and his presiding elder for several years, says of him: "As a preacher he was strong, clear and practical. He was soundly and thoroughly orthodox and evangelical, and always presented the truth in a forceful and convincing manner. His preaching was characterized by the most transparent honesty and sincerity. As a pastor and administrator of the affairs of the church, as I remember him, he was dilligent, faithful, impartial and always kind and gentle. He bound those closely to him who knew him best. He could hardly be called a revivalist in the popular meaning of the term, and yet he had revivals. They were not characterized by great religious excitement, and by the additions of large numbers to the church, but rather by the depth and solidity of the work and by building up the church in a genuine New Testament experience and in holy living."

He had a great desire to live to meet his brethren as they might call to see him once more during the session of this Conference, but when he realized that the Master had come and called for him, he was fully ready, and like a well ripened sheaf was gathered into the harvest. His funeral was held in the First Methodist Episcopal church. Richmond, Ind., the sermon being preached by Rev. Milton Mahin, at the request of Brother Harrison. He was assisted by the presiding elder, Rev. A. E. Mahin, and a number of the brethren of the Conference, after which his remains were laid to rest in Earlham cemetery.

death he was an intense sufferer. All that kind friends, his obedient children and faithful wife could do to alleviate his suffering was done, but to no avail. He bore his suffering with christian fortitude and resignation. Although the cords of his earthly tabernacle seemed to be loosed one by one, yet divine grace enabled him to say, "Thy will be done," and to lean upon the promise, "All things work together to them that love the Lord." For twenty-five years he was actively employed in the work of the ministry. He was an earnest, faithful and devoted preacher. In his social relation he was kind and agreeable, winning souls often by these means. As a pastor he was careful and considerate, looking well after the interest of his church. His memory is precious to his wife and children. His record is clear. His works he leaves behind speak well of him. Let us close up the ranks and push the battle on. We will join our brother after awhile.

J. W. Bowen.

REV. H. N. BARNES.



Rev. Horatio Nelson Barnes was born in Canandaigua, New York, Sunday, July 26, 1806, and sweetly fell asleep in Jesus in Pasadena, California, February 15, 1896.

Being the son of a Baptist minister he was reared in a christian atmosphere from his childhood. He was early converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal church.

He was united in marriage with Miss Hanna M. Hunt, his blessed wife who survives him, October 13, 1831.

There were born to them five sons and six daughters. Four of the sons and two daughters preceded him to the "unseen country." The surviving son, Judge Erastus Barnes, resides in Pomona, California. The remaining are Mrs. Alice B. Hardin, wife of Rev. Frank A. Hardin, presiding elder of Rockford District, Rock River Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church; Mrs. Hannah M. Martindale, the widow of the Rev. Charles Martindale who was for years a pastor in the North Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church; and Maria L. Vigus, wife of the Rev. W. J. Vigus, D. D., Superintendent for the American Bible Society in the District of Indiana, and who is also a member of the latter above named Conference; Another, Mrs. Ella J. Magee, is wife of Judge Harvey W. Magee, of Pasadena, California.

About the year 1836 Brother and Sister Barnes moved to Indiana. Five years later, in 1841, he entered the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal church, with our worthy Dr. Milton Mahin, in the Indiana Conference, which then embraced the whole State of Indiana.

When he began his ministry, preachers on circuits seldom remained longer than one year. His appointments were as follows: 1841, Jasper Mission; 1842, Williamsport; 1843, Dayton; 1844, Covington; 1845, Attica; 1846-47, Newtown; 1848, Middletown.

In 1849 he was appointed to Greencastle, the seat of what was then Asbury, now DePauw University. The people of that city had been accustomed to able and eloquent preaching. Matthew Simpson had gone only the year before from the presidency of the University to the editorial chair of the Western Christian Advocate. He, Edward R. Ames and others of almost equal prominence, had been heard frequently in Greencastle. Strong men had been pastors of that important church, but none of them witnessed such a revival as swept the community under the labors of Brother Barnes. During his first year about three hundred souls were converted, many of whom were students. It was at that meeting that the wife of the writer, then a girl in her fourteenth year, was converted. At the close of that year a second church was organized, he remaining pastor of the original church which was called First Charge, afterwards Roberts Chapel, now College Avenue. In 1851 Brother Barnes was sent to Logansport. In 1852 Bishop Baker appointed him presiding elder of Fort Wayne District and in 1854 he was sent as pastor, by Bishop Simpson, to Roberts Chapel, now Roberts Park, Indianapolis, where he remained the full term, two years. In 1856 he was stationed at Muncie. In May of that year he was delegate to the General Conference. He also served as secretary of the Annual Conference in 1856, '57, '59 and '61.

During 1858 and '59 he was pastor at Pearl Street, Richmond. In 1860 he was again sent as pastor to Logansport and the next year he was made presiding elder of Indianapolis District, and that term of service covered the entire war period. He resided during the four years in Centerville and the year after was appointed to Williamsburg circuit. The next year, 1866, he was appointed presiding elder of Peru District, where he served four years, during the last two years, however, it was called Logansport District. From thence he was sent as presiding elder of West Fort Wayne District.

When that term of service expired, by limitation of law, he again returned to the pastoral work and was pastor during the next two years in Union City, which closed his labors in the effective relation. In 1876 he was granted a superannuated relation.

For a short time he continued to reside in Union City, and then removed to Mattoon, Illinois, but in 1883 he went to Pasadena, California, from whence his purified spirit took its flight, in triumph, to heaven. His body sleeps in Mountain View cemetery.

What can we afford to leave unsaid of that good man while there is so much to be said? In the delightful memories of him we seem to walk in a garden of spices. and everything we touch is redolent with sweet perfumes that rise like holy incense above us. We glorify not the man, but we magnify the grace of God in him. Like Moses, Horatio N. Barnes "wist not that the skin of his face shone." If you had told him so, how it would have grieved him, so humble was he, and so deeply conscious of his personal unworthiness.

His last pastor, Rev. Clark Crawford, bears this testimony on the occasion of the funeral. He says: "I should do violence to my own feelings and injustice to the living and the dead if I did not say that in my belief it has been our privilege to have among us as pure and devout a man as since the days of the apostles has breathed a prayer to heaven. I have known many good men; I believe I have never known a better man than he whom we were accustomed to call Father Barnes, who has gone to worship with the spirits of the just made perfect." Those words seem no exaggeration to those of us who knew Brother Barnes.

As a minister of the Lord Jesus, he was not what the world and even some in the church would call a great and eloquent preacher, but he was what the more discriminating and spiritual would regard as a glorious preacher of the "everlasting gospel." As a loving daughter says of his instructions during the last days of his sickness, he "expounded the word of God so beautifully, as you know he always could do."

A loving, approachable and sympathetic pastor was he. To young ministers a wise and most helpful counsellor as some of us can bear witness, and letters that in the midst of busy cares he stopped to write us nearly forty years ago, are yet sweet as a newly opened rose. They were indeed roses sent out from the garden of God.

The closing up of the life of Brother Barnes was a spiritual ovation. One of his daughters who was constantly with him says: "Dear Pa, for a few days before he died, seemed to be in an ecstatic state almost continually, the spirit hardly seemed to be in the body. He was constantly thinking and talking about Jesus and heaven. He would so often say:

"'Oh what can I do my God to praise,'
In the morning of his last day he cried,
'My soul before Thee prostrate lies,
To Thee her source my spirit flies.'"

And again about ten minutes before the spirit fled, "he spake the same word."

Many times too they had heard him say, "I brush the dews on Jordan's banks," and when he was closing his eyes, Tillie said to him, "You are brushing the dew now, aren't you Pa?" "Yes," he replied, and then sweetly fell asleep as a little child, nearly a hundred years old.

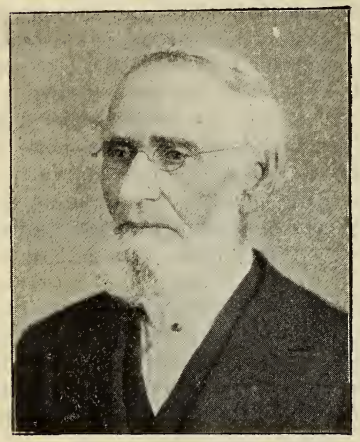
REV. MILTON WAYMAN.



Milton Wayman was born in Covington, Ky., August 19, 1813, and died at Hillsburg, Ind., March 10, 1896, aged 82 years, 6 months, and 21 days. Early in life he moved to Henry county, Ind., and for seven years owned and cultivated a farm a few miles north of New Castle. Feb. 13, 1834, he was married to Miss Brejette Hoover. To them were born ten children, five sons and five daughters, six of whom, with their mother have crossed over. The four remaining are Mrs. Geo. Geyner, Ridgeville, Ind.; Mrs. Bell Keesling, Cadiz, Ind.; John Wayman, Hutchinson, Kan.; Miss Mattie Wayman, Ridgeville, Ind. About 1845 Brother Wayman sold his farm and entered the mercantile business in New Castle, Ind. For years he resisted the call to preach the Gospel. In 1847 he was deeply convicted for sin at a Methodist revival, and was gloriously converted to Christ. He at once united with the church, and the new life was so marked and manifest that fruit was produced in a remarkably short time. Wherever he went he preached Christ, and was wonderfully successful in winning souls to His kingdom. In 1849 he was licensed to preach, and entered the North Indiana Conference, at Muncie, Indiana. Notwithstanding his early educational advantages were limited, he made such good use of his opportunities, and lived such a godly life that all the years of his ministry were full of blessed results. He was ordained deacon at Winchester in April, 1858, by Bishop Ames, who also ordained him elder at Mishawaka in April, 1860. He filled the following appointments: Fortville, Cicero, Alto, Lincoln, Alexandria, Lagro, North Manchester, Bourbon, Springfield, Ridgeville, Charlottsville, Middletown, Walton, Alto. Goldsmith, Kempton and Santa Fe. He was superannuated in 1887, but continued to be very useful in church work up to within two weeks of his death, at which time he filled the pastor's regular appointment at Hillisburg, preaching with great power. The period of his ministerial life covered forty years. Brother Wayman was a clear and forcible preacher, original, powerful in prayer, strong in his individuality, always beloved by the people. He was always deeply interested in the Master's work, constantly inquiring, "Lord, what wilt Thou have me to do?" Possessing a large amount of sunshine in his nature, he was always sweet spirited and gentle. His cheerfulness and gentle manner opened the way to many a heart, which he won to Christ. God's promise found a fulfillment in the closing days of father Wayman's life. His last sickness was of short duration, lasting only a few days. He was happy, and shouted the praises of God to the last. The prayer he so often repeated was answered:

"Happy, if with my latest breath I may but gasp his name.
Preach Him to all, and cry in death, Behold! Behold! the Lamb."

April 13, 1888, he was married to Mrs. Armilda Jones, who still survives him. Funeral services were conducted at the home, by his pastor, Rev. J. L. Hutchens, when his remains were taken to Ridgeville, Ind., where the funeral sermon was preached by Rev. J. W. Bowen, in the Methodist Episcopal Church, and interment by the side of his first wife. J. W. Bowen.

A number of resolutions by members of this Conference, were read and referred.

RESOLUTIONS

Adopted by the North Indiana Lay Electoral Conference, held at Richmond, Ind., March 27, 1896.

I. Resolved, That there should be equal lay and clerical membership in Annual Conference.

II. That women should be elegible as delegates to the Annual and General Conferences.

III. That there should be equal clerical and lay representation in the General Conference.

IV. That, for the best interests of our church, we think it unwise that any additional Bishops be elected at our next General Conference.

V. We hereby declare our unalterable opposition to the saloon, and demand its suppression. That we shall ask the next General Assembly of Indiana to so amend the present law as to give the people of any county or township the right to say by ballot whether liquor shall be sold as a beverage therein for a given period of time or not, and that where any county or township shall declare against such sale, then there shall be no saloon in such county, township or voting precinct, for other than medical, mechanical or scientific purposes.

VI. That we heartily endorse and earnestly urge the passage of the bill in the Congress of the United States, looking to the restriction of the sale of intoxicants to such persons only as are authorized by the laws of the various states in which they reside, believing that such a law will abolish the so-called "quart shops," and greatly aid in preserving peace and promoting good morals in every community.

VII. Resolved, That in our judgment the Presidents of the Woman's Foreign and Woman's Home Missionary societies, should be members of the Quarterly Conference.

VIII. That we are opposed to the removal of the present time limit of the pastorate.

IX. That we are in favor of the organization of the Laymen's Association, as outlined in the communication from laymen of the Cincinnati Annual Conference.

X. That the delegates elected by this Lay Electoral Conference be and hereby are instructed to not only oppose by their influence, but vote against any proposed change in the boundary lines of the North Indiana Conference.

The hour now having arrived to meet the Annual Conference in joint session, this Conference repaired in a body to the First M.E. Church.

C. C. BINKLEY, President,

J. W. SALE, Secretary.
